

Terroir Wine Seminars, Inc.
In partnership with
Bourgogne Aujourd'hui magazine

October 2002

Photo highlights from our Fall 2002 Burgundy Harvest Seminar
(many thanks to Bob Bennethum for his photography)

Four nights and three days, glorious weather, great food, and dozens of great wines.

The whole gang with Aubert de Villaine in the DRC vines.

Six events are being planned for 2003 - see the web site as details will be posted when available.

1140 Holland Drive
Suite #4
Boca Raton, Florida 33487
Tél 1.561.998.4987
Fax 1.561.998.4929
Toll Free Fax 1.866.227.8571

www.terroir-wine-seminars.com e-mail david@terroir-wine-seminars.com

Voice / Fax en la France

01.53.01.08.97

Étienne de Montille offers his views on the harvest.

Frédéric Drouhin speaks of the definition of "terroir" in a session with François Faiveley and Becky Wasserman.

Pierre Meurgey offers a tasting of the wines of Maison Champy

Monsieur Devillard explaining the holdings of Domaine Jacques Prieur

Corton Charlemagne - the view from lunch at Le Charlemagne with Jacques Lardière of Louis Jadot.

Harvest in Le Montrachet

Pinot Noir Grapes ready to be picked.

Ready for dinner!

The full range of DRC 1996 served the last evening at Château de Gilly.

One beautiful plate of many. Meals were taken at Jean Pierre Silva's Vieux Moulin, Château de Gilly, L'Ecusson, Le Charlemagne, and Castel de Très Girard.

The magnificent Château de Gilly.
The Hostellerie du Vieux Moulin
also served as a home base.

